

Princeton Neuroscience Institute

"Inside-out" Seminars

Neuroscience in critical dialogue with society

All talks begin at 4:30 p.m. in Room A32. Reception to follow.

February 15th

Ruha Benjamin (African American Studies)

Oliver Rollins (Sociology, UPenn)

Imaging Difference: Social Neuroscience and the Logics of Race

April 5th

John Conway (Mathematics)

The Free Will Theorem

April 19th

Katja Günther (History of Science)

The Mirror and the Mind: Reflections on the Self in the Sciences of Mind and Brain

April 12th

Arvind Narayanan (Computer Science)

Data as a Mirror of Society: Lessons from the Emerging Science of Bias in Machine Learning

princeton.edu/pni-inside-out